FROM THE EAST

From the East,

Hello brothers and sisters. What a year That I have had. As I look back on 2021 all I can say is holy smokes. As soon as the 2021 lineup of officers took office we hit the ground running. We had a lot of work ahead of us in 2021 and with the help of all of the brothers and sisters from the Order of The Eastern Star we made major accomplishments. With the Covid virus affecting our Lodge from years prior we had work to do. I am happy to say we had several Lodge functions that were successful throughout the year. We held a concealed weapons class by Ted Smith P.M., we had a successful raffle that helped the Lodge out in more ways than we can imagine. We had great dinners thanks to our Junior Warden Harry Mapes. Our Christmas party with the Past Masters & Widows dinner was an absolute success. We got our website back up. I dont even know where to begin but to say thank you to everyone who helped me out throughout my year as Worshipful. And I pass the torch to Worshipful Master -Elect Nigel Mills I can he will do a fantastic job in the year to come.

Fraternally,
Jason Walters
Worshipful Master

FROM THE WEST

From the West,

Happy New Years everyone. I hope everyone had a safe Christmas and happy new years. I wanna say thank you to everyone who helped me throughout the year as Senior Warden. Due to a change in my job I was unable to lead the Lodge in 2022. I would like to congratulate the elected and appointed officers of the Lodge for the 2022 year. I know Worshipful Elect Nigel Mills will do a great job. Now for some neat facts about New Years.

-The First new years celebration dates back to over 4,000 years ago.

-Greek people hang onions to their doors on the New Year eve as a tradition. They do it with a belief that it will bring good luck to the children in house.

-It is decided by the Roman Catholic Church to celebrate the New Year on 1st January every year. The day was marked according to Georgian Calendar.

-The name of the month January is derived from a two-faced God named Janus. The God has one face looking front and the other looking back.

Happy New Years everyone
Fraternally, S.W.
