From the East

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

I open this month's talk with a deep sadness in the loss of our Brother, Worshipful Thomas Clark. I will miss the talks we had and his guidance over the years, I also will miss the harmonica playing in our dining room and Lodge. He was a great friend.

As we enter the end of the year, we look back on what we have done and how fast it has passed. Our Lodge has done great things this year.

- We have helped our charities with book bags for school, distributed food and allowed them to use our facilities for setting up and storage.
- We have a new Boy Scout Troop and Pack in the Lodge on Monday nights.
- We have had ALL Three Degrees in our own Lodge this year. Bringing in new Brothers and growing our Fraternity.
- We have practiced our rituals on Tuesdays, honing our skills.
- We have won the Traveling Gavel and the Sword for the Grand Communication attendance.

Still to come is another Fellow Craft Degree on November 7th at 1300. Come out and support our Brothers. We also have a Veterans Day Program on November 11th at 1200. Our annual Christmas Parade is on December 5th where we will enter our float again. Still more to come.

We are in election season and have some nominations already with the Secretary. ALL nominations need to be in by the drop of the gavel on November 12th.

I have planned a Veterans Day Program to include a catered lunch followed by presentations in the Lodge Room. Please plan on attending.....see attached flyer.

I want to remind everyone about the Christmas Parade. We will be doing a float again and need your help and participation. The parade will be on December 5th at 10;00 a.m. See the flyer attached

Come on out to the Lodge and be apart of us getting better!!!

God Bless you all.

Fraternally,
Ernie Paton

From the West

My Beloved Brothers,

As we enter the month of November, a season of gratitude and reflection, I invite each of you to pause for a moment and think about the blessings we sometimes take for granted. Life moves quickly, and in the middle of our daily responsibilities, we often forget how fortunate we are to have family, friendship, faith, and the gift of Brotherhood.

My Brothers, when was the last time we thanked a Brother simply for being there? Not for his title, his position, or what he has accomplished, but for the friendship, encouragement, and kindness he has brought into our lives.

Freemasonry teaches us that the greatest treasures in life cannot be purchased or measured. They are found in the hand that lifts us when we fall, the Brother who stands beside us during difficult times, and the lessons that help us become better men.

As we approach Thanksgiving, let us remember those Brothers who may be facing difficult moments, those who are unable to attend Lodge, and those whose chairs are now empty but whose memories remain forever in our hearts. True Brotherhood does not end when the Lodge closes its doors; it continues through our actions, prayers, and love for one another.

My Brothers, before we ask the Great Architect of the Universe for another blessing, let us first thank Him for the blessings we have already received.
May we never become so busy seeking more Light that we forget to share the Light we already possess.

This November, let gratitude guide our hearts, humility guide our actions, and Brotherly Love guide our journey.

May the Great Architect of the Universe bless you, your families, and our beloved Lodge with health, peace, wisdom, and happiness.

I look forward to seeing you all at our stated communication.
Happy Thanksgiving, my dear Brothers. May God bless each and every one of you.

Fraternally and with Brotherly Love,
Angel Cardona

WHAT MAKES A MAN A MASON?

By George M. Free, a member of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania (date unknown)

What makes a man a Mason, O brother of mine?
It isn't the due guard, nor is it the sign,
It isn't the jewel which hangs on your breast
It isn't the apron in which you are dressed

It isn't the step, nor the token, nor the grip,
Nor lectures that fluently flow from the lip,
Nor yet the possession of that mystic word
On five points of fellowship duly conferred.

Though these are essential, desirable, fine,
They don't make a Mason, O brother of mine.
That you to your sworn obligation are true
'Tis that, brother mine, makes a Mason of you.

Secure in your heart you must safeguard and trust,
With lodge and with brother be honest and just,
Assist the deserving who cry in their need,
Be chaste in your thought, in your word and your deed.

Support he who falters, with hope banish fear,
And whisper advice in an erring one's ear.
Then will the Great Lights on your path brightly shine,
And you'll be a Mason, O brother of mine.

Your use of life's hours by the gauge you must try,
The gavel of vices with courage apply;
Your walk must be upright, as shown by the plumb,
On the level, to bourn whence no travelers come,

The Book of your faith be the rule and the guide,
The compass your passions shut safely inside;
The stone which the Architect placed in your care
Must pass the strict test of His unerring square.

And then you will meet
with approval divine,
And you'll be a Mason,
O brother of mine.

Fraternally,
Wor. Jeff Hall, Treasurer, St. Cloud Lodge No. 221

Chaplains Corner

Brothers of Saint Cloud Lodge,

Brothers of Saint Cloud Lodge. My topic this month is titled "Where were you on September 11th 2001"?

I was living in Maryland near Annapolis and working for the power company. I was 53 years old and had a wife and daughter 13 years old at the time. I was working the night shift 6pm to 6am and was in bed a sleep when my wife called home to wake me and told me about the attack. She told me to pick up our daughter at school. The school was closed down after the second plane hit the tower. By the time I got my daughter home the 3rd plane had hit the Pentagon in Washington DC. That was 40 miles from our home.

The call came down from FAA to ground all air traffic. I have a friend that worked air traffic control at BWI airport. He had to get all the traffic down and fine room to park all planes. We have talked about that day many times over the past several years. He said it was the worst day in his time as a controller.

The night of 911 I went into work. We did not know if the power plants would be a target for attack. We made our rounds looking for anything out of place. I came across a smell of smoke with no source of fire. All 5 guys on shift came to me and we found the source 30 minutes later. It was from a careless smoker and the butt was burning on the roof. The fans pulled the smoke into the plant. After we found the source and put it out, we all had the same thought. Was someone getting us into one area of the plant and leaving another area unprotected?

This was my 911 story. I think of it the same way as my parents did about Pearl Harbor. The major difference is they did not know where it occurred. 911 was so close to home for me. Many Americans felt anger towards the Japanese which is very similar to what happened here. We need to remember those that lost their lives and continue to struggle mentally and physically with 911.

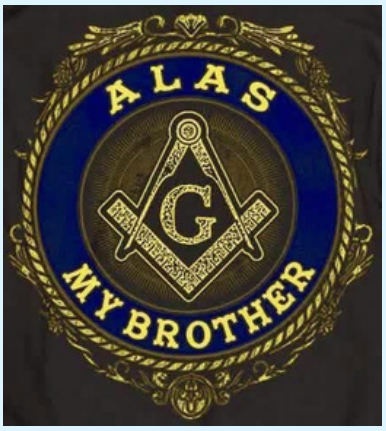

Everyone here has a story about their 911. Let's not forget.

Fraternally,
David Smith

Old Saint Cloud Masonic Lodge

What is a Masonic Lodge?
A Masonic lodge is more than a building; it is a living, breathing organization made up of and sustained by the members themselves. It is a tight-knit group of men who make solemn vows to one another and become comrades in Masonry and life.
Above all, a Masonic lodge represents open arms, a helping hand, and brotherly love to every Mason, anywhere, at any time.

Famous Masons of the Month

George Washington (First U.S. President & Founding Father) — Initiated on November 4, 1752, at Fredericksburg Lodge No. 4 in Virginia. He paid two pounds and three shillings to join at age 20.

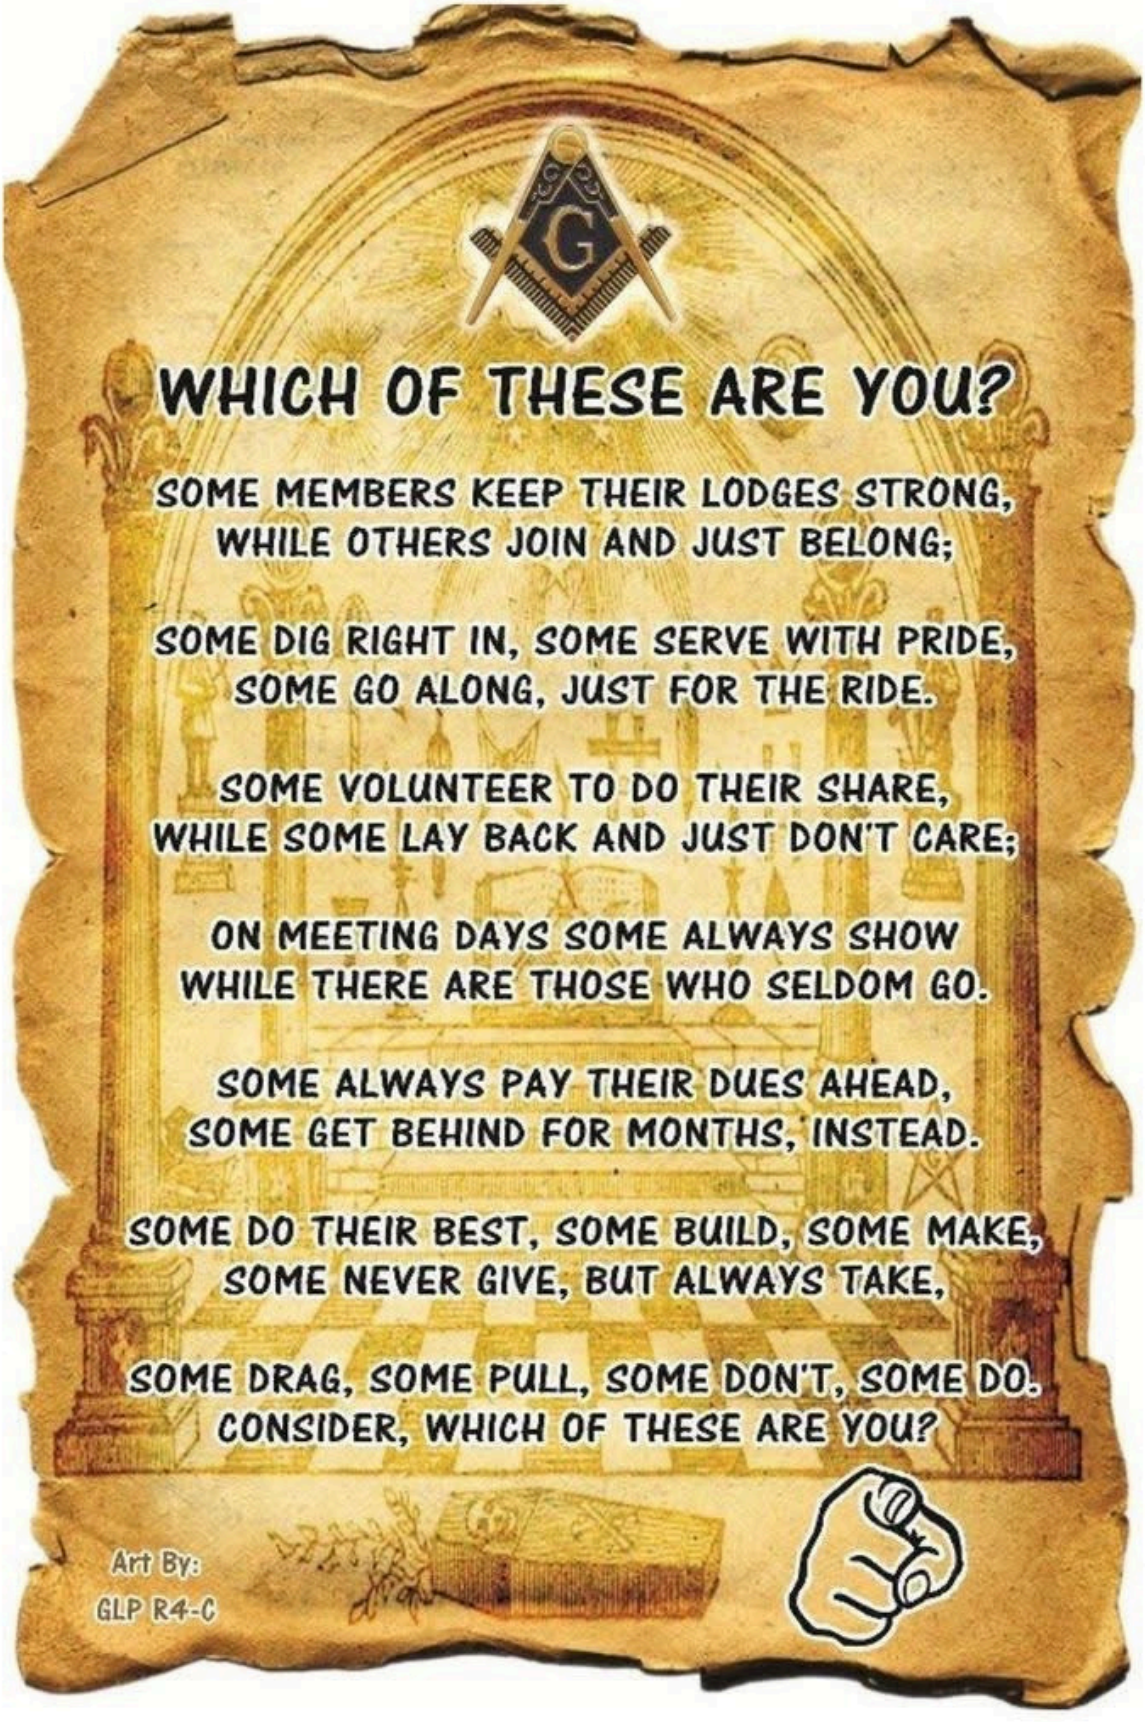

James Monroe (Fifth U.S. President) — Initiated on November 9, 1775, at Williamsburg Lodge No. 6 in Virginia. He was notably just 17 years old, joining during the dawn of the American Revolution.

James A. Garfield (20th U.S. President) — Initiated on November 19, 1861, at Magnolia Lodge No. 20 in Columbus, Ohio. Coincidentally, this occurred on his 30th birthday.

WHICH OF THESE ARE YOU?
SOME MEMBERS KEEP THEIR LODGES STRONG,
WHILE OTHERS JOIN AND JUST BELONG;
SOME DIG RIGHT IN, SOME SERVE WITH PRIDE,
SOME GO ALONG, JUST FOR THE RIDE.
SOME VOLUNTEER TO DO THEIR SHARE,
WHILE SOME LAY BACK AND JUST DON'T CARE;
ON MEETING DAYS SOME ALWAYS SHOW
WHILE THERE ARE THOSE WHO SELDOM GO.
SOME ALWAYS PAY THEIR DUES AHEAD,
SOME GET BEHIND FOR MONTHS, INSTEAD.
SOME DO THEIR BEST, SOME BUILD, SOME MAKE,
SOME NEVER GIVE, BUT ALWAYS TAKE,
SOME DRAG, SOME PULL, SOME DON'T, SOME DO.
CONSIDER, WHICH OF THESE ARE YOU?

Suspension and Expulsion: Part One

As Masons, we have both rights and responsibilities. When we fail to live up to those responsibilities, we may violate Masonic Law. Each Grand Lodge has its own system of justice, and the details may differ from one jurisdiction to another. This article offers a general discussion of two serious Masonic penalties: suspension and expulsion. It is offered for education and discussion, not as a statement of Florida Masonic Law. Note: The Masonic Law of the Grand Lodge of Florida may not be fully consistent with this commentary.

Because the topic is lengthy, it has been divided into three parts for publication in successive Trestle board education segments.

Suspension

Suspension is a temporary loss of the rights and privileges of Freemasonry. There are two kinds of suspension: definite and indefinite. In both cases, the Brother is unable to exercise Masonic privileges while suspended. The difference is how and when restoration takes place.

1. Definite Suspension. Definite suspension means suspension for a fixed period of time. The length of the suspension is stated in the sentence. During that time, the Brother may not visit Lodges, hold Masonic communication, or receive Masonic relief. However, he does not lose his Masonic membership entirely. His rights are placed on hold until the period of suspension ends.

When the fixed period ends, the Brother is restored to his former position without further action, unless the governing law requires otherwise. For example, if a Lodge officer is suspended for three months, his official duties are also suspended during that time. Once the three months have expired, he resumes his Masonic rights and, if still applicable, the office he held before the suspension.

2. Indefinite Suspension. Indefinite suspension has no fixed end date. It continues until the Lodge, or another authority named by the Grand Lodge, restores the Brother. While suspended, the Brother's rights and privileges are placed on hold just as they are during a definite suspension. In either case, suspension should follow proper notice, due process, and trial as required by the applicable Masonic law.

Restoration works differently for the two kinds of suspension. A definite suspension ends when the stated time expires, unless the Lodge or Grand Lodge shortens the period according to its rules. An indefinite suspension ends only when the proper Masonic authority votes or acts to restore the Brother.
For an indefinite suspension, restoration normally requires action at a regular Lodge meeting or another method provided by the Grand Lodge.

A suspended Brother cannot enjoy the privileges of membership during the suspension. For that reason, some writers have argued that his dues should also be suspended during that period. Local Grand Lodge law should always control this question.

The exact vote required for suspension or restoration may vary by jurisdiction. Each Lodge should consult the law and procedures of its own Grand Lodge.

Food For Thought

The numbers 3, 5, and 7 are progressive stages of moral and intellectual instruction encountered during the Fellow Craft degree ceremony:
3 (Three steps) Symbolizes the three principal officers of a lodge and the three stages of human life (youth, manhood, and old age). It represents a moral foundation, discipline, and devotion to learning.
5 (Five steps) Refers to the five human senses (by which man apprehends the world), the five points of fellowship, and the five orders of architecture. It signifies the disciplined growth of the mind and the training of human faculties.
7 (Seven steps) Represents completeness and the seven liberal arts and sciences (grammar, rhetoric, logic, arithmetic, geometry, music, and astronomy). This final set of steps leads to the culmination of knowledge and wisdom in the "Middle Chamber".
